

MORE PROFITABLE FARM- ING CAMPAIGN For Chickasaw County

Friday, Saturday, December, 3 & 4

53

Fifty Three Meetings

53

At School Houses, Churches and Towns

Under auspices of Bureau of Farm Development of Business Men's Club of Memphis, co-operating with Arkansas and Mississippi Profitable Farming Association, State University, State A. & M. College, Agricultural High School, State Agricultural Commissioner, Women's Clubs, railroads, telephone and telegraph companies, newspapers, State Bankers Associations, Chambers of Commerce, State and County Boards of Education, Farmers' Unions, assisted by agricultural extension department of International Harvester Company. Twenty practical and capable agriculturists and educators will be here to tell Chickasaw county farmers how they can make farming more profitable and have something to sell every week in the year.

They will talk of live stock, hog cholera, gardening, poultry, diversified farming and home economics.

These speakers are not politicians, but practical farmers, who have succeeded. There will be room for all. Let everybody come. Arrangements made to care for colored people.

A pig skin or cow hide makes the best grain sack you can have on your farm.

The opportunity of the Town lies in the Country. Corn, wheat and hay, beef, pork and poultry. These are the home builders and the builders of great cities.
